

DECEMBER 14, 1990

USEFUL INFORMATION

NOTE: Most items in this Bulletin are from the mail we receive on a regular basis. We simply pass this information along to you for your interest.

EVENTS, CONFERENCES, JOBS, NEWS OF INTEREST

JOBS

Concordia University has an opening for a Vice-Rector, Services starting June 1, 1991 for a five-year renewable term. The candidate, reporting directly to the Rector and Vice-Chancellor, must have a solid record in the management of large and complex administrations, strong leadership skills, and fluency in French. Other assets include experience in university administration, teaching and research. Interested candidates should direct their application, by January 25, 1991, to Dr. Patrick Kenniff, Rector and Vice-Chancellor, Concordia University, 1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd. West, Montréal, Québec, H3G 1M8.

The Department of Law at Carleton University has two preliminary tenure-track positions; both at the Assistant Professor level, and one for a ten-month term appointment. Both positions are subject to budgetary approval. Candidates should have an LL.B. or equivalent plus an advanced degree in law or a related discipline. Applications must be submitted by February 1, 1991 to: Chair, Appointments Committee, Department of Law, Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario, K1S 5B6.

Scholars planning a sabbatical are encouraged to apply to spend their leave at The Centre for Research in Women's Studies and Gender Relations at the University of British Columbia. Successful applicants will receive a Fellowship for the difference between their sabbatical salary and their regular salary (to a maximum of $20,000), as well as a research grant account (up to $10,000). Interested candidates should address their inquiries to: Dr. Tannis MacBeth Williams, Chair, Provost's Advisory Committee on Women's Studies and Gender Relations, c/o Department of Psychology, U.B.C., Vancouver, B.C. V6T 1Y7. The deadline is February 15, 1991.

The National Faculty Exchange Applicant and Preliminary Interest Pool, has sent along some guidelines for NFE members. Over 600 faculty members have expressed an interest in a change of assignment for the coming year. NFE member campuses are encouraged to consider this experienced and mobile educational resource when seeking individuals to fill short-term or temporary hiring needs. Teachers who have registered with the National Faculty Exchange may contact Bette Worley, President, 4656 Jefferson, suite 140, Fort Wayne, IN, 46804 to find out how this kind of placement will affect either their financial or benefit situation at their home campus.

Brock University has as tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level in Physics. The candidate must have a Ph.D. and is expected to establish a productive research program. Duties include teaching both undergraduate and graduate level courses. Applications should be directed, by January 1, 1991, to: Dr. J.A. Moore, Department of Physics, Brock University, St. Catharines, Ontario, L2S 3A1.

Brock University has a tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level in Computer Science & Information Processing. Candidates who possess a Ph.D. will be expected to establish a productive research program, as well as assume a normal range of teaching duties. Applications should be directed to: Prof. J.M. Miller, Chair, Department of Computer Science & Information Processing, Brock University, St. Catharines, Ontario, L2S 3A1 by January 15, 1991.

The Department of Geological Sciences at Brock University has a faculty appointment in the general area of Environmental Geology. This appointment will be made at the Assistant Professor level, however an appointment to a higher rank will be made under exceptional circumstances. Applications must be sent by February 15, 1991 to: Dr. Mary Frances Richardson, Search Committee Co-ordinator, Department of Geological Sciences, Brock University, St. Catharines, L2S 3A1.

The National Film Board of Canada has one three year temporary position for a program producer for it's New Initiatives in Film (N.I.F.) English Program. The position requires experience in film production, and a demonstrated knowledge of issues of priority concern to Native Women and Women of Colour. Responsibilities include the management and development of the New Initiatives Program, defining and developing program goals and objectives, developing human and financial resources as well as stimulating and encouraging the conception of film ideas. Candidates should direct their application to Patricia de Séguin, Personnel Branch, (A-12), before December 31, 1990. Please refer to reference # 9237-Montréal when inquiring about this position.

York University, Faculty of Arts, Department of Political Science has a two-year contractually limited appointment in International Relations. The position involves undergraduate teaching and research. Candidates should have completed/or nearly completed their Ph.D., have demonstrated research and teaching abilities, as well as publication potential. Please apply by February 15, 1991 to: Professor L. Panitch, Chair, Department of Political Science, York University, 4700 Keele Street, North York, Ontario, M3J 1P3.

York University also has a tenure-track position in the field of International Relations. The position is listed at the assistant professor rank and involves graduate teaching and supervision, as well as undergraduate teaching and research. Candidates should have a Ph.D. or equivalent, the capacity to teach undergraduate courses in Canadian Foreign and Defence Policy and the capacity to teach and supervise in International Relations at the graduate level. Please address your application, before February 1, 1990 to Professor Panitch at the listed above.

York University, Depart of Political Science also has two contractually limited appointments in Canadian Politics at the lecturer or assistant professor level. The positions involve undergraduate teaching and research. Candidates should have a Ph.D., demonstrated research and teaching ability, and publication potential. For one of the positions, the ability to teach Democratic Organization and Administration and/or Public Law would be an advantage. For the other position, the capacity to teach 19th and 20th Century Political Thought would be an advantage. Please send your application to Professor L. Panitch at the above address by February 15, 1991.

Simon Fraser University, Faculty of Arts, School of Criminology has one tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor rank. Candidates must possess either a Ph.D. in a social or behavioral science discipline, or a LL.B. accompanied by one other graduate degree. Demonstrated research and teaching interest in Criminology are assets. Duties include research, and teaching courses in criminology. Please send your applications, before March 11, 1991 to: Dr. Margaret A. Jackson, Director, School of Criminology, Simon Fraser University, Burnaby, B.C. V5A 1S6.

CALL FOR PAPERS

- 4 -

SAFIRE (Students Active in Feminist-Inspired Research and Education) has issued a call for works in progress for a conference scheduled for May 2-5, 1991 at the University of Western Ontario. The conference, titled "Unravelling our Silences: Works in Progress by Students of Feminism(s)", is accepting proposals for panels, roundtables, workshops, presentations and performances. One-page abstracts should be submitted by February 28, 1991 to: SAFIRE Network, Centre for Women's Studies and Feminist Research, University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario, N6A 3K7.

Theoretical papers as well as empirical studies which address the relationship between gender and knowledge are invited from scholars for an upcoming conference on June 26-28, 1991 at the University of Calgary, Calgary, Alberta. The conference title is "Interdisciplinary Approaches to Knowledge and Gender." Confirmed speakers include Dr. Karen Anderson, Dr. Blythe Clinchy, Dr. Lorraine Code, Mr. Marsha Hanen, Dr. Jane Roland-Martin, Dr. Patrocínio Schwieckart, Dr. Alison Wylie. One-page abstracts are due by January 30, 1991 and should be directed to: Dr. M.J. Osler, Department of History, The University of Calgary, 2500 University Drive N.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2N 1N4.

The University of Minnesota will host a conference on "Feminist Theory and Music: Toward a Common Language" on June 27-30, 1991. Proposals are sought for the following topics: Constructions of gender in music, evidence of gender-coding in music, reflections of sexuality and sexual orientation in music, the imprint of gender on musical studies and gender politics in the institutions of musical production, study and education. One-page abstracts may be submitted by January 1, 1991 to: Lydia Hamessley, School of Music, 100 Ferguson Hall, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN, 55455.

GRADUATE AWARDS NEWS

The Canadian Institute of Ukrainian Studies, University of Alberta, is offering three unrestricted field research fellowships in Chernivtsi, Ukraine. The fellowships are for a one month period between March and December, 1991. Preference will be given to those working on a specific project. Applications are not available at the Graduate Awards Office and must be obtained from the Canadian Institute of Ukrainian Studies, 352 Athabasca Hall, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta, T6G 2E8. The deadline for applications is January 15, 1991.

The Foundation ADRIQ announces one Roger A. Blais Bursary for studies in innovation, technology transfer and entrepreneurship to a Québec resident/Canadian citizen or permanent resident enroled or planning to enrol in graduate studies at a Québec university. Preference will be given to students who intend to carry out part of their studies in one of the countries of the European Economic Community. The deadline for application is January 1 in the year the scholarship is requested. Application are not available in the Graduate Awards Office but may be obtained by contacting: M. André Trudel, Secrétaire-Trésorier de l'ADRIQ, Université du Québec à Montréal, C.P. 8888, Succ. "A", Montréal, (Québec), H3G 3P8.

The Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada, Canadian Foundation for the International Space University is offering 15 unrestricted 1991 Summer International Space University Program Scholarships at the Moscow Aviation Institute. Applicants must be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident, must hold a bachelor's degree or equivalent from an accredited university, must be fluent in English and a second language, and should be accepted into or enroled in a graduate level program; or should have completed graduate school in the last five years, or should have professional experience in industry, government or academic research. Interested candidates should apply, before January 15, 1991, to: The International Space University Program, c/o Awards Division, AUCC, 151 Slater Street, Ottawa, Ontario, K1P 5N1.

There are two Ruth Wynn Woodward Fellowships for Post-Doctoral work in Women's Studies. Applicants for these one year-non-renewable fellowships must have earned their Ph.D. within three years prior to the competition deadline. Tenured professors are not eligible. Applications for this fellowship are available at the Graduate Awards Office and must be completed by January 15, 1991.

One Canadian Institute for Nordic Studies Graduate Award is available for a graduate student studying Nordic-related subjects in fields such as humanities, social services, or physical/natural/applied sciences. Candidates must have earned their bachelor's degree, and have a proposed course of study or research plan accepted by a Nordic institution. A minimum of 6 months residency in a Nordic country while in possession of this scholarship is mandatory. Applications must be submitted by January 31, 1991, and may be picked-up at the Graduate Awards Office.

*Please Note: Complete details concerning these awards can be obtained by consulting the "academic" bulletin board.

One Intertel Foundation Inc. Hollingworth Award is available for a student in the following fields: Educational Administration, Education, Psychology. The award is open to individuals who present proposals for publishable research projects concerning gifted and/or talented young people. Research projects may be sponsored by universities, school systems, individual schools, public agencies or private non-profit organizations. Applications are accepted until January 15, 1991 and may be obtained at the Graduate Awards Office, 2145 MacKay.

EVENTS

MAIR VERTHUY SCHOLARSHIP PRESENTED TO LINDA VAUDAN

Linda Vaudan is this year's recipient of the Mair Verthuy Scholarship. The presentation took place on Monday, December 3, 1990 during the End of Term Party held at the Institute. The scholarship, which is awarded to the student with the highest academic average in Women's Studies, was established to recognize the contributions made by Mair Verthuy, the first Principal of the Institute. On hand to award Linda with a certificate and cheque were Institute Principal, Arpi Hamalian, Etudes française professor Mair Verthuy, Vice-Rector, Academic Dr. Rose Sheinin, and the Dean of Graduate Studies, Dr. M.E. Szabo. Even though the season's first snowstorm created delays and absences, those persons attending the party enjoyed the opportunity to mingle with their peers, friends and co-workers, and to offer their best wishes to Linda Vaudan as she returns to Toronto to continue her involvement in issues concerning women. The best of luck to you Linda. Congratulations for a job well done!

END OF SEMESTER PARTY

The Office on the Status of Women, The Concordia Women's Centre and the Simone de Beauvoir Institute invite you to attend an End of Semester Party on Thursday, December 20 at 16:00 p.m. at the Institute's Lounge, 2170 Bishop.

DR. URSULA FRANKLIN TO SPEAK ON January 10, 1991

On Thursday, January 10, 1991 Dr. Ursula Franklin will lecture on "The Real World of Technology." Dr. Franklin's presentation is part of the Social Aspects of Engineering Series. Dr. Franklin is professor emeritus of Experimental Physics at the University of Toronto, a former board member of the National Research Council and Science Council of Canada, a member of the Order of Canada, and a Concordia honorary doctorate recipient in June, 1989. The lecture will take place in the Alumni Auditorium of the Hall building, Room 110 at 11:45 a.m.

FILMMAKER ANAND PATWARDHAN VISITS CONCORDIA

On December 8, 1990, Filmmaker Anand Patwardhan presented a film on Bhagat Singh (1907-1931) titled "In Memory of Friends: a film for communal harmony in Punjab, India." The film, which has won two international awards, was shown at the Fine Arts Building.

BOOK LAUNCH OF THE LIFE AND WORK OF KARL POLANYI

The Karl Polanyi Institute of Political Economy, and Black Rose Books held a book launch for The Life and Work of Karl Polanyi: A celebration, on Monday, December 10, 1990. Edited by Kari Polanyi-Levitt, the event took place at Concordia's School of Community and Public Affairs, 2149 MacKay.

DEUX INVITATION DE F.R.A.P.P.E

F.R.A.P.P.E. annonce le début de deux séminaires pour janvier prochain. Ces séminaires ont été créés pour répondre aux besoins spécifiques des femmes professionnelles et cadres ainsi qu'à toute femme appelée à s'exprimer en public et à traiter avec les médias. 1. Séminaire sur les techniques de communication, donné par Armand St-Jean de l'Université de Montréal: Prix: 300$ pour les membres de F.R.A.P.P.E. et 350$ pour les non-membres. 2. Conférences sur l'importance de l'humour au travail par André Descheneaux, qui a vingt ans d'expérience en relations de travail et en interventions de gestion: Prix: 75$ pour les membres et 85$ pour les non-membres. Les places sont limitées. Voir le babillard "academic" pour les formulaires d'inscription et les dates des ces séminaires. Pour renseignements: 521-0152.

PRODUCTIONS FILLES EN VUE

Productions Filles En Vue lance sur le marché les reportages vidéographiques de deux grands événements. Femmes vers l'an 2000 se veut un complément aux actes du colloque du même nom. Les deux réalisatrices, Diane Trottier et Johane Fréchette, font revivre l'histoire politique des québécoises du passé, du présent, et du futur. Place au pouvoir des femmes retrace les moments dominants de la recontre de la Côte-Nord. Tout en soulignant l'apport des femmes, leur détermination et leur implication depuis 1940. Productions Fille En Vue est située à 2279, rue de Champlain, Montréal. Pour renseignements: 523-9078.

NEWS OF INTEREST

- 8 -

CACSW SPEAKS OUT ON VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

In a December 5, 1990 communique, the Canadian Advisory Council on the Status of Women has urged the federal government to take the necessary steps to eliminate violence against women. "The federal government must respect its Lake Louise commitment and dedicate the necessary funds to make Canada a violence-free society," stated Dr. Glenda Simms, CACSW, President. Signed on May 31, 1990 by federal, provincial and territorial ministers responsible for the status of women, the Lake Louise Declaration recognizes women's right to live in a safe environment and it's concern about the lack of services available.

CONTINUING EDUCATION OFFERS GIFT CERTIFICATES

looking for a different present this holiday season? How about a gift certificate towards a non-credit course in The Centre for Continuing Education. Gift certificates are available in denominations of $25, $50 and $100 and can be used toward 1991 courses. Contact 848-3600 for further information about this unusual gift idea.

OFFICE ACQUISITIONS

The 1990-91 Graduate Awards Directory is available in the office reception.

The latest Graduate Studies News is also available in the office reception.

PERSONALS

Best wishes and a speedy recovery to Dr. Antoinette Moalbaye as she recovers from a broken ankle suffered last weekend.

The Institute extends it's best wishes to Adjunct Fellows Bett Miller and Pat Horn as they return to their respective home addresses in California and South Africa.

SEASONS GREETING! BEST WISHES FOR A PEACEFUL, SAFE AND HAPPY HOLIDAY AS WELL AS A HAPPY NEW YEAR! SEE YOU IN 1991!